FROM:

Deputy Director of Security
Policy and Management

SUBJECT: Mid-Atlantic Business Conference

1. Reference is made to our recent telephonic discussion concerning the development of a speech for the DCI at the Mid-Atlantic Business Conference on the general topic of terrorism. It was also mentioned that there may be an interest in having some background material on industrial security, possibly as an outgrowth of the Boyce/Lee case.

2. Attached herewith is some data which might be helpful in developing speech data for the DCI. There are several unclassified tapes which you might find useful.

- a. A Department of State briefing for overseas travel.
- b. The Sixty Minutes tape on the Boyce case at TRW.
- c. The Sixty Minutes tape on the William Bell case at Hughes Aircraft.

3. I have asked [] to contact you directly concerning the terrorist threat. You may also wish to check with [] Chief of our Security Education Group concerning hints on suggestions for an unclassified briefing. He can be reached on extension []
